

ACOFS Bulletin

Australian Council of Film Societies

NUMBER 43

JULY 2015

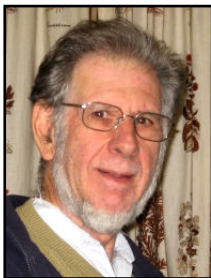

This Bulletin has been compiled and edited by Ian Davidson, (ACOFS President) president@acofs.org.au

This Issue contains information important to your president, secretary, treasurer and programmers, so please pass it on to all your committee people - including those not on email.

And please ensure it does not get caught up in spam filters!

In this issue:

1. From the President – Will your film society survive without you?
2. NFSA News.
3. The ACOFS DVD agreement.
4. News from the Distributors.
5. New Titles from the SLC at the NFSA.
6. Movie Jokes to Make you Groan.
7. ACOFS Insurance Update.

1. From the President, Ian Davidson – Will your film society survive you?

In recent discussions with film societies from all areas of Australia it is clear that many of them would not survive if the main committee members were to leave the society. We have also seen situations where experienced committee members have resigned (for a range of personal reasons) leaving a completely new committee to pick up the pieces.

Would your film society survive if you were to resign? Have you prepared a succession plan? Will others on the committee or new to the committee know what to do if they have to take over with little or no notice?

I can highly recommend the work that some film societies have done in writing down their processes, agreements with other organisations and contacts etc. In the most forward thinking cases, these have been the basis of a Film Society Handbook which can be passed on to the next committee member expected to take up the challenge.

Training is also a part of the business of succession planning. Ensure that more than one committee member gets to share the work of others on the committee so that there are no irreplaceable “experts” on the committee.

Do you have agreements with the local council, the venue operator, or any groups you interface with? Are these agreements written down? If the originators of those agreements have moved on are the details and conditions known by others on the committee?

Succession planning and society procedures were topics discussed at the recent ACOFS AGM in Nunawading, and it was agreed that Frank Davin (fdavin@tpg.com.au) would collect together examples of such "handbooks" prepared by societies with a view to putting together some recommendations. So if your society has prepared any "handbooks" which cover operating procedures, succession plans etc, or if you have anything to say on the topic, please get in touch with Frank at the email address above.

2. NFSA News

In the brief ACOFS Bulletin #42 that we distributed earlier than usual, in June, we updated you on the situation at the NFSA. We have no more news, but if you need to reappraise yourself of what has happened, past Bulletins are available from www.acofs.org.au.

In Summary

16mm: All titles are all to be moved to the archive collection where many will be culled as junk or damaged, or made "not available for loan" because of their rarity or archival value. Loans will be made only from the Lending Collection and only to authentic users with a confirmed record of "responsible handling" of prints. Those titles without a current screening licence may remain in the Archive but the borrower will be required to arrange for the screening rights. The price for borrowing a 16mm feature will increase to $60 plus freight both ways. (This is half the fee to regular borrowers.) Contact Steph Carter on the email address screeningloans@nfsa.gov.au or you can ring her on 02 6248 2175 or better still use the free call on 1800 012 175.

VHS: Will not be available for loan in future.

DVD & BluRay: NFSA will cull titles they have that are available from commercial distributors in Australia but intend to increase the collection with more curated items from Australia and selected international titles that are not available commercially here, are archive controlled, with the Goethe Institut or in the public domain. Another possibility is that the NFSA may be able to copy some of their licenced 16mm films onto DVDs for inclusion in the SLC. Rights for current holdings may be renewed subject to the above guidelines. DVD loan prices are likely to increase with CPI in future, although not likely for the next 12 months.

Booking System: Will continue with the current system for now, and the NFSA will take bookings beyond the end of 2015.

3. The ACOFS DVD Rights Agreement

The DVD rights agreement Fact Sheet 3B is constantly being updated as new distributors come to our notice or existing ones change their contact details. Download one today to keep up to date. www.acofs.org.au/resources/. There have been some changes to the contacts. The latest version was uploaded on 13th June 2015.

The ACOFS agreement applies only to fully paid up societies that screen DVDs non-theatrically (ie to members only) and only where the society sources their own copy of the DVD. The agreement does not cover supply of the DVD from the distributor, although the society may make their own arrangements in this regard.

Don't forget that "non-theatrical" means no sales of single admissions nor membership tickets which allow admission to any 3 or any 6 of the year's program. Such tickets are considered "bulk buys" of single admission tickets. A membership ticket should be defined by period, not by a set number of screenings.

The ACOFS agreement does not apply to 16mm, 35mm or 2K digital screenings.

4. News From the DVD Distributors

These are all the DVD distributors who are party to the ACOFS DVD rights agreement, under which member film societies pay special affordable prices for their DVD screening rights. As ACOFS' part of the agreement, we promote the distributor's catalogues and especially information on any new acquisitions. Information is listed below when provided by the distributor.

For contact details and websites see ACOFS Fact Sheet 3B on www.acofs.org.au (Updated regularly).

Since 2011 ACOFS has been handling the member film society bookings for Madman DVD screening rights on their behalf, and Susan Davidson is the contact at ACOFS.

But please remember Susan does have a life outside the film society movement and would appreciate sufficient notice to be able to confirm your booking in plenty of time.

Note that Madman does not hold non-theatrical screening rights for all titles listed on their website. Some titles might only have commercial or home entertainment rights while other titles might be listed by Madman on behalf of other smaller distributors. 5. New Titles from the SLC at the NFSA

The SLC (Screen Lending Collection) is part of the NFSA (National Film and Sound Archive) in Canberra. There are over 1,024 DVD and BluRay feature films available for loan to film societies at $22 (as at May 2015 - including rights and delivery to you). See their catalogue at loans.nfsa.gov.au

These titles have been added in the last 90 days and are available for screening by film societies.

Deadlock (1971)

Roland Klick: The Heart is a Lonely Hunter (2013)

Supermarkt (1973)

White Star (1983)

Also don't forget that the SLC has many older titles, with rights, that are not available for screening otherwise as the Australian distributor no longer hold current rights for them.

6. Movie Jokes to Make you Groan!

Q. Why are movie stars so cool. A. Because they have so many fans.

As the movie progressed I was getting more and more annoyed, WILL THEY EVER BE QUIET? I silently fumed. Finally after close to a half hour into the movie I tapped the blabbermouth in front of me on the shoulder and politely said, "excuse me Ma'am but I can't hear." "YOU ARE NOT SUPPOSED TO!" she exclaimed, "THIS IS A CONFIDENTIAL DISCUSSION!"

My wife was complaining that I spend too much time on the computer and not enough time with her. I decided to fix that by having a "movie night" with her. We watched Hackers, The Net, Anti-Trust, You've Got Mail and The Matrix. She's still mad at me. What did I do wrong?

Q: What did Snow White say when her photos weren't ready yet? A: Some Day My Prints Will come!

Q: Why was Cinderella kicked off the soccer team? A: Because she always ran away from the ball!

Q: What kind of vehicles do Disney characters drive? A: Minnie Vans!
